

Carrboro FARMERS' MARKET

What's at the Southern Village Market Now :

\*New arrival:* fresh pastured chicken arrives this week at Southern Village!

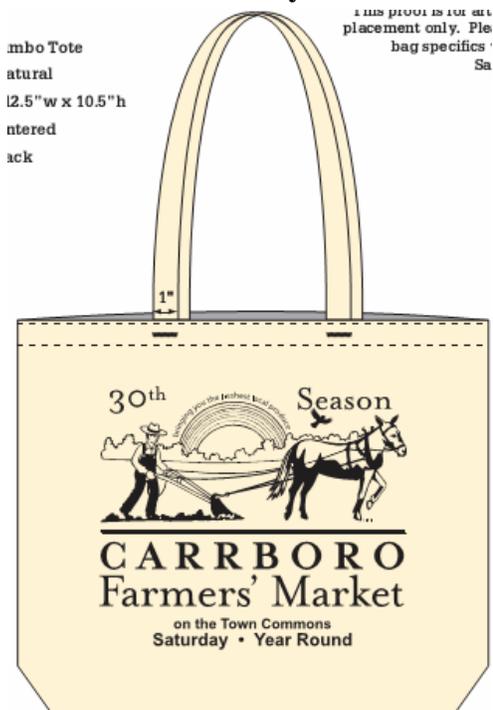

Strawberries, green onions, garlic, kohlrabi, pac choy, cauliflower, lettuce, sugar snaps, chard, kale, broccoli, cabbage, eggs, pastured chicken, potted plants, wine, beautiful cut flower bouquets, and more!

**Produce availability dependent on weather conditions*

Update on Our Vendors:

Leslie, our wonderful baker from Sari Sari Sweets, will return to sell at the Southern Village Market mid-summer and this time with her brand new little boy! Yes, Leslie had her baby last week and they are both doing great. She's very excited about returning to the Southern Village Market with her new arrival later on this season.

New 30th Anniversary Tees and Canvas Bags!!

Our Tees: All organic cotton and natural dyes on American Apparel (sweat shop free) shirts, and of course, all locally made. You really can't beat them.

Our Bags: These have the woven strap that can go over your shoulder that's big enough to put your week's groceries in without feeling too big. We hope you like them as much as we do!

Expect Our NEW Bumper Stickers in a Few Weeks!!!!

Coming Up . . .

What Happens in June at Southern Village??

Did you know that June is Triangle Eat Local Month? As such, we hope you'll consider visiting the Market and getting to know some of our local farmers. Also, Dorette Snover from C'est Si Bon cooking school will be cooking local ingredients found at the Market Thursday at Southern Village, June 19th. Recipes will be available for anyone interested in trying her meals at home! Eat, shop, and learn at the Market!

Recipes

Want some ideas about how to cook with what's at Market? Pick of a recipe of the week at the gazebo or check out our webpage for more available market recipes!

Thank you all for supporting our Market for 30 years!

See you there,

Sarah Blacklin, Market Manager
